Cinema Entrance Terms and Conditions

The purchase of entry tickets for film showings or other events at Wotton Electric Picture House ('the Cinema') is strictly subject to the following Terms and Conditions. By purchasing an entry ticket, you agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. Should you have any queries or need clarification on any of the Terms and Conditions, please contact a member of staff.

1. Ticket prices are those displayed at the time and point of purchase. All prices include applicable Value Added Tax.
2. Tickets are subject to availability and are non-refundable if the film screening or event goes ahead as scheduled.
3. Seating will be unreserved unless otherwise specified at the time and point of purchase.
4. Under no circumstances, save personal injury or death resulting from its negligence, shall the Cinema be liable to the purchaser of an entry ticket for more than the purchase price of the ticket.
5. For tickets purchased online, a card handling fee is payable in addition to the ticket price to cover the cost of providing card services. You will be notified of the amount at the time and point of purchase.
6. Tickets purchased online will be available for collection at the Cinema box office 30 minutes prior to the performance. Guests should print the PayPal payment receipt generated when purchasing tickets online and bring this with them as proof of purchase and identity. The Cinema reserves the right to withhold tickets if members of staff are not satisfied as to the ownership or validity of the tickets purchased online.
7. If a ticket is purchased online in advance and admittance cannot be granted to the event because the Cinema has, for whatever reason, been filled to capacity when the ticket is collected, the Cinema will issue a refund of the purchase price or a ticket or voucher of equivalent value for a future performance. In no event shall the Cinema be liable in such circumstances for more than the purchase value of the ticket.
8. Promotional vouchers must be redeemed in person at the Cinema box office and cannot be applied to advance online ticket purchases online. Vouchers bearing an expiry date must be redeemed on or prior to that date. Unless stated otherwise, vouchers may not be used in conjunction with any other promotion or special offer.

Photographic identification, such as a driving licence or passport, may be required. The Cinema reserves the right to refuse admission to anyone who members of staff believe to be under the age limit required for entry, irrespective of evidence offered.
10. The Cinema reserves the right to request proof of entitlement to entry at concessionary prices (e.g. students, and senior citizens). The Cinema reserves the right to refuse admission at a concessionary price to anyone who members of staff believe not to be entitled to that concessionary price, irrespective of evidence offered.
11. An adult (18 years plus) must accompany children under 12 years old for admission after 7pm and under 8 years old at other times.
12. For tickets purchased in advance online at concessionary prices, proof of entitlement may be demanded before admission to the auditorium.
13. Guests should check that the details printed on their ticket (or proof of purchase in the case of online bookings) are correct at the time of issue or collection. Tickets cannot be exchanged or refunded at a later stage in the event of any error. Lost, stolen or damaged tickets will not be replaced.
14. The Cinema will at all times endeavour to ensure that films are shown in accordance with the schedules advertised. However, the Cinema reserves the right to cancel a showing, substitute an alternative film or vary the time of a showing if forced to do so by circumstances beyond its control. In such circumstances, the Cinema will take all reasonable steps to publicise the change and will, at its discretion, refund to guests the cost of tickets already purchased or issue replacement tickets or vouchers for the same film at an alternative show time.
15. The Cinema reserves the right to cancel a film showing or other event, either before or after it has commenced, if circumstances develop that render continuation impossible, impracticable or presenting a real or potential risk to guests, staff or the premises. Such circumstances would include (but not be limited to) fire, significant equipment failure, threats of terrorist action and power cuts. In such circumstances, the Cinema will issue replacement tickets or vouchers for the same film or event or another film or event at an alternative show time.
16. Every effort will be made to accommodate latecomers but to avoid disturbance to other guests, the Cinema reserves the right to refuse admission to guests who arrive after the main feature has started.
17. Tickets may not be re-sold or used for any commercial purpose without the permission of the Cinema in writing.
18. The Cinema reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions from time to time without notice. The current Terms and Conditions will be displayed in the Cinema and on the Cinema's website.
