Moonrise Kingdom (Wes Anderson, 2012) New England, 1965: two twelve-year-olds fall in love, make a secret pact and run away together into the wilderness pursued by the authorities. Quirky comedy starring Bruce Willis, Ed Norton, Bill Murray, Frances McDormand and Tilda Swinton.

“Funny, bittersweet and distinct” Empire

The Angels’ Share (Ken Loach, 2012) Narrowly avoiding jail, new dad Robbie (Paul Brannigan) vows to turn over a new leaf. A visit to a whisky distillery inspires him and his mates to seek a way out of their hopeless lives by turning to drink.

“British comedy at its warmest” Telegraph

Olympic Opening Ceremony LIVE Watch live TV coverage on the Big Screen. Friday 27th July, doors open 7:30pm, concludes around 10:30pm. All proceeds to Wotton Scouts. Tickets only in advance from Cuzuns in the High Street in exchange for a minimum donation of £5 for adults and £3 for children. Tickets also available for the closing ceremony on 12th August.

Fast Girls (Regan Hall, 2012) Can four young girls from very different backgrounds overcome their animosity towards each other and win the World Championship relay for Team GB? On-topic feel-good movie starring Lenora Crichlow, Lily James and Noel Clarke.

“A very likeable and fun British film” Guardian

Men In Black 3 (Barry Sonnenfeld, 2012) When Agent K (Tommy Lee Jones) is killed by a time travelling alien gangster, Agent J (Will Smith) is forced to go back in time to try to save Agent K’s younger self (Josh Brolin).

“Cheery, sunny and nifty-looking” Telegraph

Prometheus (Ridley Scott, 2012) A team of explorers travels to a distant world in search of the origin of mankind but what they find may lead to its destruction. Much anticipated return of Ridley Scott to the ‘Alien’ franchise he created, starring Noomi Rapace, Michael Fassbender, Charlize Theron and Guy Pearce.

Ice Age: Continental Drift (Steve Martino, Mike Thurmeier, 2012) Manny, Diego, and Sid embark upon another adventure after their continent is set adrift. Using an iceberg as a ship, they encounter sea creatures and battle pirates as they explore a new world. Latest instalment of animated fun for all the family.

World Cinema: Even The Rain (Icíar Bollain, 2010) A film crew headed by director Sebastian (Gael Garcia Bernal) and his producer Costa (Luis Tosar) arrive in Bolivia to make a revisionist film about the conquest of Latin America and get caught up in real-life protests against the privatisation of water. In Spanish with subtitles.
Entry for members of Friends Electric just £1.
“Powerful and richly layered” Variety

Your Sister's Sister (Lynn Shelton, 2011) Struggling with his brother's death, Jack (Mark Duplass) stays in his best friend Iris's (Emily Blunt) cabin where he enjoys a drunken interlude with Iris' sister Hannah (Rosemarie Dewitt). When Iris arrives unexpectedly the next morning, things start to get very complicated.
“A well-acted and poignant character study” Empire
